

THE CENTRAL INDIANA MITIGATION BANK

The Eco Products Fund has wetland mitigation credits available at the Central Indiana Mitigation Bank in Henry County, Indiana. The 71 acre site of previously converted wetlands was being used as agriculture land to produce corn and soybeans. The Eco Products Fund has started to restore the site to its original condition by removing tiling and ditching, constructing the bank, seeding and planting, monitoring and maintaining the site.

The Central Indiana Mitigation Bank

LOCATION

- Located in Henry County, Indiana
- Services the northern portion Upper White River Water Shed (Hydrological Unit Code 05120201, the City of Indianapolis and many of the surrounding counties )

TYPE OF CREDITS

- Both forested wetland credits and emergent wetland credits

CONTACT INFORMATION

- For more information about the Central Indiana Mitigation Bank, credit inventory and prices, please contact:
- Don Ewoldt, Wetland Mitigation Solutions, dewoldt@lel.net
- Ben Guillon, New Forests, bguillon@newforests-us.com

The Central Indiana Mitigation Bank

